

First Thessalonians: The Focus Commentary Version of the Bible

The Apostle Paul said: But Satan himself appeared and stopped us,... Did the great apostle command him to leave in Jesus name? We just could not hide or endure the strain and emotional stress and pressure any longer, so we gave up trying... Was this a lack of faith of apostle Paul? The great apostle Paul was not afraid to confront the critical issues of today as he wrote this letter. If you have learned that some hard times are much harder than others, you will find this book is certainly a must read. Persecution and Praise, Affliction and Joy, Tribulation and Happiness. This sub-title describes one Christian Churches experiences with what happened when Christianity came to their city. Discover which church in the Bible held the only title of an example and a model for other churches to follow concerning enduring tribulation with joy and happiness, and where that joy and happiness came from. See why the Bible says in James 5:11 Indeed we count them blessed (happy) who endure. Let your life be completely changed by experiencing strength from God to have joy, happiness, and praise for God in the midst of hardship. Visit focuscomm1thess.blogspot.com for more information
