

You wanted more. You got less. You wanted this. You got that. You wanted there. You got here. You already know things in life don't go exactly as planned. And sometimes they go terribly, terribly wrong. . . . Meg Johnson came to this life-changing realization when she fell off a cliff in Southern Utah a fall that left her a quadriplegic in a wheelchair. And though she sits for the rest of her mortal life, she stands tall with a message for her brothers and sisters of all abilities: When life gets too hard to stand, just keep on rollin! As a companion to the bestselling CD that shares its name, When Life Gets Hard . . ., this incredible book creates moment after moment of thoughtful encouragement and motivation that will help you stay away from the discouraging gaps in life that Satan uses to pull you down. Meg Johnson shares insights from her life that will make you laugh, cry, and rest assured that you can overcome trials and that when your life gets hard, you too can keep on rollin!
