

A love that changes lives

Grady Daniel Jr., who has spent many years as a teacher, Christian leader, and psychiatric rehabilitation counselor, asks a fundamental question in this book: what is missing in the attitudes of so many ministers, teachers, doctors, and businessmen in their dealings with those whom it is their responsibility to serve? Though many fulfill the requirements of their work on paper - they often fail in the most basic sense - to serve with Christian love - agape. This book is about that necessary love - agape - the kind of love that God has for man: sacrificial love, seeking only the best for its object - a gift love. Mr. Daniels discussion of agape, though firmly grounded in sound biblical scholarship, is not merely theological: it is geared to helping everyone - whatever their role in life understand what agape can mean to them - and those whom they serve - for agape is in a very real way, mans most complete fulfillment - why it is said that is better to give than to receive. Of A Love That Changes Lives the author says, This book should be a beginning ..., It can be just that for you a beginning of a new life, based on agape. Grady Daniel, Jr., B.S. (Clemson University), M.Ed. (Rehabilitation Counseling, University of Georgia) taught eleven years at Georgia Military College, then worked at the States mental hospital, Central State. He was later director of Augustas Psychiatric Halfway House for nine years. For his outstanding work as a counselor, he twice received the Georgia Rehabilitation Counseling Associations Case of the Year Award; and a Case of the Year Award presented by the Southeast Region of the National Rehabilitation Counseling Association. In addition, the author has been a Baptist deacon for many years and has taught Sunday School forty years. Daniel and wife, Corinne have been married fifty years and have two sons, Barry and Vic, both married and full time Christian ministers.
