

In Isabella Bradfords enthralling new trilogy, three noble brothers?Londons most scandalous rakes?are about to do the unthinkable: settle down. Harry Fitzroy, Earl of Hargreave, is the first to meet his match and lose his heart...to a lady whos not all what he expected. As the eldest son of the Duke of Breconridge, Harry Fitzroy is duty-bound to marry?and marry well. Giving up his rakish ways for the pleasures of a brides bed becomes a delightful prospect when Harry chooses beautiful Lady Julia Barclay, the catch of the season. But a fall from his horse puts a serious crimp in his plans. Abandoned by Julia before he can propose, the unlucky bachelor finds himself trapped in the country in the care of Julias younger sister. Harry has never met a woman like Lady Augusta. Utterly without artifice, Gus is clever and capable, and seems to care not a fig for society. After a taboo kiss awakens passion that takes them both by surprise, Harry realizes hed almost given his heart to the wrong sister. While London tongues wag, hell use his most seductive powers of persuasion to convince the reluctant Gus that she belongs with him?as his equal, his love, his wife.
