

Ruth

An arduous journey through an ancient land. An impoverished family saved by the generosity of one man. Love that overcomes. Sounds like a great movie, but how does this adventure relate to my Christian life? Juliana Morgans well-laid-out study on the Book of Ruth answers that and many other questions regarding this life-changing portion of Gods Word. Not only does our Redeemers love shine through these pages, we also glimpse ourselves in the trials and triumphs of the characters. Naomi, the widowed mother-in-law, portrays the struggles of this life and Gods work through them, despite our own weak faith. The gentile woman, Ruth, depicts our own salvation. By grace alone she is brought into Gods family. Boaz, the kinsman redeemer, exemplifies our Saviors unconditional acts of love to His bride. Not only does Boaz save Ruth physically, he goes beyond, embracing her as his wife.
