

Red Hourglass (Volume 1)

A POWERFUL, MYSTERIOUS woman finds a homeless girl in a New York subway and adopts her. Janet swears loyalty to the White family and they train her at their Academy as a secret agent. Before long, her transformation into the Red Hourglass assassin is complete. She is ready to start her missions in service of the White Queen. In order to learn the whereabouts of her real mother from the White Queen, the Red Hourglass must stop the planned expansion of Wilmar Enterprises. She goes undercover to infiltrate Wilmar, and she is hired as the executive secretary to the Chief of Security, Conan Casey. Janet works diligently to uncover all Wilmar's secrets. She soon learns that Conan Casey, her target, is heir to the billion-dollar Wilmar organization. She falls prey to his dark seductions and twisted secrets and they leave her gasping for more. She unwittingly bets her stakes on a dangerous game of love. Where do her loyalties lie? Will she betray Conan for the White Queen, or fall in love with him and give up all hope of finding her real mother? And will they get out alive? The first in the Hourglass series - a dark coming-of-age romance thriller novel about finding one's identity with dominance and submission romance scenes against the backdrop of capitalism, undercover agents, poker and tango.
