

From the dust jacket flap: The Gospel According to John has been called the richest source of spiritual power in the Bible. John presents Christ as the giver of eternal life -- a quality of life that begins now and lasts forever. Dr. Killinger sets forth the power of John's Gospel with a poet's touch and a lover's sensitivity. Each daily reflection mirrors a different expression from the face of Christ: Exalted Lord, Beautiful Shepherd, Bread of Life, Living Water -- a personal album presenting thoughtful portraits of the Savior. This Devotional Guide to John will take you through the Gospel of John in twelve weeks. Each daily reading contains stimulating comments on the passage for the day, then provides illuminating background and Scripture interpretation. The prayers that follow the selections will bring the living presence of Christ into the readers' day-to-day activities. Dr. Killinger stresses that the most important part of a devotional period comes after reading a passage and meditating upon it. Wait quietly in prayer for the meanings brought to you by the Spirit, he urges. You will find, as others have already discovered through the centuries, that the Risen Christ who comes to his disciples in the upper room will come to you as well. ... I know. It happened to me as I worked on these pages. Let the Gospel of Eternal Life bring you closer to the living Lord each day. This book will enrich your life!
