

The BIG Book of Moods: Wisdom Quotes about Human Emotions

Excited? Embarrassed? Or maybe a little anxious? Well, you're not the only one. Ancient Egyptians were sad too. At least sometimes. And sometimes even during wars there are moments of happiness. And it happens to everyone to hate something or someone. So, happy or sad, you don't have to generate big thoughts about that, someone already has. If you're looking for some words of wisdom, you'll surely find them here. In The BIG Book of Moods you'll find quotes about anger, anxiety, apathy, boredom, compassion, depression, doubt, fear, gratitude, grief, guilt, happiness, hate, hope, loneliness, love, pleasure, pride, regret, sadness, shame, not only from masters of wisdom like Confucius, Buddha or Mahatma Gandhi, but also from people like J.K. Rowling, Jim Morrison, Chuck Palahniuk, Charles Bukowski, Viggo Mortensen, Julian Casablancas, Debbie Harry and many others. You either love or you hate. You live in the middle, you get nothing. Who said that? The Dalai Lama or Charlie Sheen?
