Welcome to the exciting British drama Downton Abbey which takes place in the post Edwardian era in the 1910s in the English countryside of the Yorkshire country estate of Downton Abbey. Highclere Castle was used for the setting and much of the film production took place on site. Based on the separate class lifestyles of the upper aristocratic class and the lower common servants class, this British drama gives the outside world a peek inside the rich extravagant lifestyle of the English nobility, their love lives, marriages, society and wealth. It depicts how the politics and current history is having an effect on their lives and on the British social hierarchy. It begins as the Titanic has sunk on April 14-15, 1912 and the heirs to Downton Abbey perished in this tragedy. Robert, The Earl of Grantham and Cora the Countess of Grantham his wife have three daughters, the eldest of which was engaged to Patrick the future heir of Downton Abbey who died in the Titanic accident. English social order does not allow for his eldest daughter to be the next heir therefore, they must immediately find a replacement to be her husband. This story was created and written by Julian Fellowes and produced in film by Carnival Films for British ITV and PBS Masterpiece Classic. At the time of this writing, Season 4 will air in the fall 2013 in England and January 2014 in the United States. It is the most popular drama to date in ITV and PBS and is watched by millions of loyal fans and followers.
