

Nourishment from the Word: Select Studies in Reformed Doctrine

This book is for the serious Christian following the Biblical encouragement to be a good servant of Jesus Christ, constantly nourished on the words of the faith and of sound doctrine (1 Tim. 4:6). In a world of malnourished Christians, Dr. Kenneth L. Gentry, Jr., leads hungry believers to solid food so that they might grow in grace. He provides a banquet of nourishing entrees too seldom found on the menu of the modern evangelical church, to help you grow in your understanding of the: Significance of creeds for framing the Christian faith; Covenantal importance of infant baptism; Biblical argument for baptismal sprinkling; Error of modern tongues-speaking; Method for Biblical apologetics; Biblical warrant for six day creation; Confessional endorsement of Gods Law; Basic meaning of the Book of Revelation.
