

Not Another Fairy Tale

Really... its not a fairy tale. It might be someone elses but trust me, not mine. Theres cake, a dress, a blushing bride (my best friend Cami). But Im not the bride and Im hopelessly in love with the groom (my ex). Luckily theres alcohol and a really cute best man named Jack But its not Camis fairy tale either. The groom leaves her at the alter. What type of man does that?! A year later, when Im all settled with a new boyfriend , Steady Steve, they want to try the whole ceremony thing again. This time dragging me to Germany. As if that leads to the fairy tale Camis seeking. Fine. Free trip to Europe? Ill go. Not to mention Jacks back... And this time, instead of trying to break the couple up, you know, Ill root for them. Be a well behaved bridesmaid... At least one of us deserves the fairy tale ending. Lifes messy. Who knows what will happen. Love, Holly Ps. Thats not my dress
