

The Beginning of the End - The Story of the Roman People vol. XI

Under the Five Good Emperors, Rome enjoyed unprecedented peace and prosperity. The last of these, Marcus Aurelius, has long enjoyed a reputation for prudence, deliberation and fairness. But was his rule a prelude to Rome's decline and fall? Backed up by penetrating insight, this unsurpassed portrait of one of Rome's most revered emperors is highly relevant to our own times.*CONTENTS*Roman Empire in second century ADChapter One: Emperor Marcus AureliusChapter Two: Emperor CommodusChapter Three: The Age of Civil WarChapter Four: Emperor Septimius SeverusChronologyReferencesAbout the Series and Author
