Cancer is one of the major issues of our times. Why is incidence rising so fast and why hasnt cancer research come up with the cure? And what should we do if we (or someone close to us) are diagnosed? These are issues that author Jonathan Chamberlain confronts. In this book you will find, 60-plus perceptions, thoughts and insights into cancer and the problems facing the person diagnosed with cancer. If we make choices without understanding the reasons we are making those choices then we will very likely choose wrongly. Based on 20 years of thinking about cancer, this book will help you understand what the issues are and where to find answers. I have probably thought about cancer every day since my wife was diagnosed. I am sure if we knew then what I know now she would still be alive.
