

In his recent book, Continuity and Discontinuity, John Reisinger writes, “I fear that some New Covenant Theology people are neglecting the role of Christ as a sufficient moral example. They seem to want to create a new Old Covenant that is just as rule, ore law, centered as the old Old Covenant.” I agree, and that is the reason for this booklet. I love this theme because I believe God loves this theme. It is all over the New Testament. This little book is a fresh exposition of nine passages of the New Testament that show forth Christ as the model of what it means to die to self for the good of others.
