

The First Epistle by Brother John

The Apostle John is known as the Beloved Disciple. The heart of John was something the Savior could so easily relate to and seemed to have cherished. The apostle was full of love and compassion, particularly in regards to those who followed the Lord Jesus who came to earth to do the Fathers will. In this first epistle of the Apostle John, he tries to teach his readers to be alert of those who say they love God, but do nothing to edify Gods kingdom. He motivates and encourages the reader to object any other doctrine that is contrary to the teachings that He and the other apostles received from the Lord Jesus.
