

The Power of Influence

In this book Dr Sackey attempts to deal with the source of successes and failure. Many in the charismatic arena will quickly assert development to daily confessions of the word of God and even though this have tremendous power released not many are woven into their aspirations in life because of a lack of influence from men or women destined by God to help shape our Life. Influence is everything! We are influencing others daily or are being influenced by others. The crust of the matter in the end is the choice we make in determining who becomes our Master in this sensitive and thought provocation arena, God or Satan? You will be surprised that neither of them have the legal right to operate in any human being unless by their volition, choice, decision and basically their influence. Choose the way of Christ you will be set on fire to Influence your World.
