

Being an identical twin is a blessing and a curse. A mirror image of yourself, yet flawless and complete perfection in every way. Join Caitlan and her sister back in, The Beginning. The second book in the butterfly series. Ballet is all she dreams of until she meets Lucas. How little she realises that fate will spiral both their lives into oblivion. On the surface, Lexi seems to have it all. Friends; guys tripping over themselves to date her and a wardrobe full of designer clothes. When she discovers her father's darkest secret, the betrayal and lies tear away at their relationship until there is nothing, but hate left. Clinging onto her last thread of hope means leaving the one person she has kept the secret for; staying, losing herself. Lexi had it all figured out, but Planned Parenthood was never on the agenda. The Beginning, a romantic thriller, is told in dual point of view through the eyes of the twin sisters.
