

One Last Look

A senseless murder. A sizzling adventure. Clare Westbrook is a survivor who built her law practice from sheer determination - and an unexpected inheritance. Now Clare, carrying her lover Tony Sonterras child, has taken the biggest risk of all: saying yes to his marriage proposal and finally burying her lifelong commitment phobia. So why is fear running through her veins and haunting her dreams? Sonterra is fired up to leave Phoenix for small-town Arizona to replace the towns missing police chief and target a lethal desert crime ring. Clares willing to stand by her man, but her fiance wont be the only one flirting with danger on the job: As a special investigator for the DAs office, Clare is plunged into a race to find a missing child whose mother was murdered - a hot case that puts Clares safety and that of her unborn child on the edge. For in a place where secrets have nowhere to hide, the promise of Clares bright future could vanish in the blink of an eye....
